- 1 Park in the beachfront car park (access from WATER LANE). From the car park walk past the childrens play area to the slip road at 1, walk up the road and use the steps, on your left, to climb to the forest path.
- 2 Pass the slipway and go through a gate near St. Anthony's Cottage. Bear left up a short hill. Go through another 2 gates onto the National Trust's Wharley Point Estate.
- 3 Continue along the path for 1500 metres, until it bears right and heads inland. When you come to the road go right, towards the farm.
- 4 Keep left through the farm and go through 3 gates onto a track leading back down into the valley.
- 5 On reaching the end of the track go through another gate keeping the garden wall on your left. You will come to the junction near St. Anthony's Cottage, turn left. Go through the gate near the slipway and turn left again. On your left you will see a door in the wall, open it to visit St Anthony's well.
- 6 Carry on up the lane, bear right and follow the road to Llansteffan Castle.

Approx 2-3 Hours

Family Walk

Not suitable for pushchairs or wheelchairs

Muddy areas

Approx 4.5 km

Look out for...

- St Anthony's well at 5, its waters are reputed to cure many ills!
- Medieval Llansteffan Castle at 6, staggering views across the estuary.
- The quiet, secluded, golden sands of Scotts Bay at 2.
